

Time Out

New York

The obsessive guide to impulsive entertainment
July 21-27, 2005 Issue No. 512 $2.99

ROOMMATE WANTED!
(SOME NUDITY REQUIRED)
SEE PAGE 4

NYC'S
LISTINGS
BIBLE

DOWN UNDER-PRICED Few items on the menu at Ruby's cost more than $10.

Your passport global cuisine

Hustle & Flow
Rob Zombie
Fiona Shaw
Rodney Crowell

AUSTRALIAN | Ruby's

Nolita is slowly becoming Little Australia, thanks to a few Aussie shops and two down under restaurants. Eight Mile Creek is the pricey joint, but across the street, Ruby's keeps just about every item under ten bucks. The menu sticks to salads and sandwiches, as well as the essential native dessert: sweet, sticky date pudding. BEST BET Blueys sandwich ($8.50), 219 Mulberry St between Prince and Spring Sts (212-925-5755). Subway: R, W to Prince St (W weekdays only); 6 to Spring St. 9am-11pm. Cash only.